22. If you used the iREAD Reading by Design program, please give us your feedback on the Resource Guide and products. What did you like? What didn't you like? How can we improve?
23. Is there anything else you would like to tell us?

Please tell us more about your program to help us demonstrate the value and impact of California's public library summer reading and learning programs.

The statements below are based on California's new Summer @ Your Library quality principles and indicators developed by members of the California library community.

Please provide a candid self-assessment of your program so that we may identify areas of strength among California's summer programs and areas where more training and assistance might be needed. Your responses will help us improve the support that CLA and the California State Library provide to public library summer programs. We also encourage libraries to use the indicators for self-directed reflective practice around summer programming.

NOTES

Sign-ups and completions, programs events, and activities

1. Please use your own definitions of early learners, children, and teens.
2. If you do not separate your counts of early learners and children, please include all data in response to the questions asking about “children.”
3. Please use your own definition of completion; if you do not count completion, please enter N/A.
4. Please include all programs, events, and activities that you consider to be part of your summer program.
5. Please report data on all programs, events, and activities – both those held at the library and those held out in the community.
6. When counting attendees, please include everyone who attended, even if they were not part of your target audience (e.g. if parents or older siblings attended a children’s program, if younger siblings attended a teen program, or teens attended an adult program).

Notes on submitting your summer reading data

1. Please compile all data for your library jurisdiction locally. We ask one person from each jurisdiction to submit the compiled data on behalf of all your libraries.
2. Please do not send any data directly to CLA staff. Please wait until you see a link to the online survey, which we will send out by email in August.

Notes on completing the online survey in August/September

1. Please review the questions and have all your data with you before you start to fill out the survey because you need to complete it in one sitting. Once you’ve started the survey, you will not be able to save your responses and return to them later. We apologize for any inconvenience.
2. When you are reporting numerical data, please enter numbers into the response boxes, not words. E.g., “2” not “two” and “0” not “none” or “zero”.
3. When you are reporting numerical data, please enter one number into the response box, not a range of numbers. E.g., when reporting program attendance, do not enter “approx. 80-100”; instead, please choose just one number to enter.
4. If you would like to print your completed survey, remember to print each page as you go along -- after you’ve entered your responses and before you click the “submit” button. Once you click submit you will be taken to the next page of the survey.
5. Please respond to all questions.
 - a. If any questions do not apply to your library, please enter N/A into the response box.
 - b. If you did not collect data relating to a particular question, please enter “No data collected” into the response box.
 - c. If you are unable to answer a question, please use the response box to tell us why. Your feedback will help us improve next year’s survey.
